> ISAIAH 12:4

Yesterday, my sister Ruth and I reminisced about Thanksgivings long ago, when our children were small. Our conversation turned to favorite pies (chocolate cream, of course!) and all the love, laughter, and fun that filled those precious gatherings.

As we gather around the table this year, our lives may look different, but two things remain: First, I'm still making the pies! More importantly, our grateful hearts remain.

And truth be told, no matter our circumstances, it is the love of Jesus that inspires our thankfulness.

In Isaiah 12:4, we read, "And on that day you will say, Give thanks to the Lord, call on His name. Make known His deeds among the peoples; make them remember that His name is exalted."

Verse 5 continues, "Praise the Lord in song, for He has done glorious things; let this be known throughout the earth."

In today's beautiful melody, the Bocelli family captures the spirit of gratitude, reminding us to gather friends and family around the table, remember those we love who are no longer with us, and take a moment to be grateful for both the joy and the tears.

So, as we gather with family and friends around the table, let's remember to share what matters most: Give a Little Love.

And as we ease into the Christmas season, 14-year-old Virginia Bocelli sweetly sings of angels proclaiming "Hallelujah" from above and the promise of peace on earth when we open our hearts.

From all of us at God's Song Within, may your turkey be moist, your leftovers plentiful, and your heart overflowing with gratitude this Thanksgiving Day! Wishing you a happy, healthy, and hearty celebration!

And remember: It's not happy people who are thankful; it's thankful people who are happy.

So, count your blessings, cherish your loved ones, and wherever you go, whatever you do, give a little love!
